Wertz Warriors A Statewide SOMI Civic Partner supporting riders riding for a cause.

Each winter since 1982, the Wertz Warriors have been riding their snowmobiles on a 900-mile endurance ride throughout northern Michigan. Started by former Detroit Tiger, Vic

Wertz, to fund Special Olympics Michigan's State Winter Games, the Warriors ride throughout northern Michigan raising funds and awareness for people with intellectual disabilities and Special Olympics Michigan.

The Wertz Warriors are proud to support the Rev It Up Ride, Michigan Moose Charities, and Special Olympics Michigan.

If you are interested in becoming involved with the Wertz Warriors, please visit www.somi.org.

Rev It Up at the Summer Games

Each year over 5,000 athletes, family members, volunteers and supports gather on the campus of Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant for Special Olympics Michigan State Summer Games. During this three-day event, athletes from across the state compete in 12 sports, earning medals and ribbons for their achievements.

In 2010, riders participating in the "Rev It Up Ride" will participate in a special "Rev It Up" moment. This opportunity will not only thrill the crowd, but touch the lives of all of our riders.
