Dear Friends,

What a great organization Special Olympics Michigan is! What a remarkable effort by volunteers and staff to create opportunity, acceptance and inclusion for the athletes of Special Olympics Michigan. I want to personally thank each and every one of you for the time, energy, passion and dedication that you put forth for our program.

2017 was another great year for Special Olympics Michigan. Our program grew in the numbers we serve at each state event and in the schools. By the end of the year we had 280 active Unified Champion Schools in Michigan! Building a culture of welcome is what we do. Inviting people to participate or volunteer with us is so important. Our school programs offer us the opportunity to recruit future volunteers, athletes, donors and families. We can only accomplish our goals with the help of everyone!

Did you know that we are more financially secure than ever before? That does not mean that we stop what we are doing! We continue to move forward, offer more inclusive opportunities for children and adults with intellectual disabilities and reach out to more people to join us! I think of our athletes who continue to amaze and inspire us. They need us, as do their friends who are not in the program.

2018 marks the 50th Anniversary of Special Olympics! We are a sports centered Inclusion Revolution! Remember to #Choose to Include!

Last, I want to thank you for the wonderful opportunities and friendships that I have been given to be a part of this great organization. I have loved every minute of being a part of Special Olympics Michigan. I am retiring in August of 2018 and the new CEO Tim Hileman will begin August 2. This is a great organization and I will be watching proudly to see how Special Olympics Michigan moves forward in the next 50 years!

Lois Arnold

SPECIAL OLYMPICS ATHLETE OATH

Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools is an education-based project that uses the sports and education programs of Special Olympics to activate young people across the U.S in order to promote school communities where all young people are agents of change – fostering respect, dignity and advocacy for people with intellectual disabilities. Special Olympics believes that through sports, young people can make a difference in friendships, schools and communities.

UNIFIED SCHOOL KEY CHARACTERISTICS

- Youth Leadership
- Unifying Programming
- Anti-bullying Message
- Positive School Climates

CORE ACTIVITIES

Inclusive Sports: Unified Sports provides opportunities for students with and without intellectual disabilities to participate in sports activities alongside one another and which have been found to be among the most conducive activity for breaking down stereotypes.

Inclusive Youth Leadership: Each school forms a Youth Activation Committee (YAC) comprised of students with and without intellectual disabilities that gives them opportunities to take on leadership roles in promoting Unified Champion Schools activities in their schools and in the community.

Whole School Engagement: Provides opportunities for all students in the school to participate in Unified Champion Schools through school-wide activities (e.g. R-word campaigns, Fans in the Stands, Polar Plunges).

UNIFIED SCHOOL OUTCOMES

- The magic of Unified Champion Schools is manifested in the inclusive friendships formed, seeing paired youth in action as leaders, creating communities of caring and respect.
- Youth become core leaders in their school communities using Unified Sports and Spread the Word to End the Word as the catalyst for impacting change in a school climate.
- Administrators and teachers take the educated risk to support the vision and insight of youth to create inclusive environments in their schools through Unified Sports and youth leadership opportunities with a clear vision of impacting school environments.
- The inspiration and passion that comes from experiencing Special Olympics sports motivates young people to seek a world of unity, and then provides students with and without disabilities with the skills and opportunities to create social change.

Level 2 concentrates on the application of these physical activities through a sports skills activity program and developing skills consistent with Special Olympics sports play.

Activities consist of: foundational skills, walking and running, balance and jumping, trapping and catching, throwing, striking, kicking and advanced skills.

GUARDIANS OF THE FLAME

Nationally, the Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR) is the largest grassroots fundraiser and public awareness vehicle for Special Olympics. Officers and athletes serve as “The Guardians of the Flame,” running the Special Olympics “Flame of Hope” to the Opening Ceremony of numerous Special Olympics competitions.

Officers from across the state host different agency fundraising events, assist in medal presentations at State Summer, Fall, Basketball and Winter Games, sell merchandise and raffle tickets, as well as participate in Polar Plunges and in local Community Runs.

Proceeds from these fundraisers help support year-round sports training and athletic competition for more than 27,000 children and adults with intellectual disabilities and Unified Partners in Michigan.

POLAR PLUNGES

The annual Law Enforcement Torch Run® Polar Plunge series is known for its zany costumes and courageous participants. After raising funds for Special Olympics Michigan athletes, these participants dress up in costume and prepare to plunge... ready to jump in and freeze their fur!

SPECIAL OLYMPICS MICHIGAN SUPPORTERS

CORPORATE SUPPORTERS

Corporate partners are essential in helping Special Olympics Michigan fulfill its mission. Through their generous contributions of cash, in-kind donations of products and services, volunteers and awareness, we are able to share the power of sport with the athletes of Special Olympics Michigan.

INDIVIDUAL SUPPORTERS

Thousands of people across the state support Special Olympics Michigan through donations, volunteerism and advocacy. Whether a monthly pledge donor, a volunteer at local competitions, a teacher promoting tolerance and acceptance in the classroom, or a campus volunteer recruiting fellow students to end the derogatory use of the “R-word,” our individual supporters are critical members of the global Movement. They have taken a stand for dignity and acceptance in an effort to create a better world for us all through promoting understanding and compassion.

Did you know that you could continue to be an integral part of this movement by leaving a gift to Special Olympics Michigan after your lifetime? It's simple! You could name Special Olympics Michigan as beneficiary in a will, trust, life insurance policy, or retirement plan.

Seven out of ten Americans who pass away each year leave no will. The result is often uncertainty, anguish and unnecessary expense. Without a will, your estate will be distributed according to state law, regardless of your wishes. A properly executed will ensures that your wishes are carried out. Here is an example of suggested language for naming Special Olympics Michigan as a beneficiary. Please feel free to adapt this language with your legal counsel to fit your individual situation:

I give, devise and bequeath ____ percent of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate (or sum of dollars $_____) to Special Olympics Michigan, located in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, for its unrestricted use and purpose.

If you believe in the Special Olympics movement now, please consider the simple steps toward securing the future of this movement for years to come. For more information, please contact Alison Miller at (989) 621-5580 or mille1as@cmich.edu.
