Special Olympics Michigan
2022 Gamechanger Award Nomination

PURPOSE

The Gamechanger Award is a new award to Special Olympics Michigan to celebrate an individual who's helped the organization thrive during the past few challenging years. This award is to highlight the work of individuals that have advanced our movement forward and elevated how Special Olympics Michigan operates for the foreseeable future. The Gamechanger Award will be announced at The SOMI's Award Ceremony.

CRITERIA

The criteria for selecting the Gamechanger Award consists of the following items:

- The individual has been involved with Special Olympics Michigan over the past 3 years.
- The individual should have a tangible accomplishment, project, or objective that can be cited in "changing the game" for SOMI.
- The individual has made SOMI a better place than if they had not been involved.

METHOD OF NOMINATION

Each area may submit one name for the Gamechanger Award. Nominations must be submitted no later than Nov 1, 2022 to somi@somi.org.

AWARD PRESENTATION

The award presentation will take place at the Unified Sports and Inclusion Center in Grand Rapids the evening of Dec 2, 2022. Details to follow.
